Importance of Alexandria.

The Washington Star of last Saturday has the following to say of Alexandria : Few people know that a large part of the necessities of living are brought from Alexandria to Washington establishments every day. Washington is and has always been essentially a place of residence. Groceries, drugs, flour, candy and other like commodities are supplied from Alex-andria to the retail merchants of this city in a quicker manner and at less net cost than can be turnished from other outside markets. This bit of information may be entirely new to many residents of the national capital. But there is a reason for it. For instance: A local retail grocer goes to his sugar bin and finds it empty. What does he do? Write an order to Philadelphia or Baltimore? Such a proceeding would take from

The temperature of the preceeding Sunday was their less for rather too warm for comfort, especially in the early part of the alternoon, the mercury standing between 71 and 72*; yesterday it was hovering between 28 was done to pay a and 29. There was snow in the suburbs of Baltimore but was none fell in this to play I do not know. About sundown the wind diminished in force, but the temperature remained at the freezing point. The remained at the freezing point. The attendance at the various places of worship showed an increase in the morning, but at night only average congregations were present. There were comparatively few people on the streets during the day, the cold weather keeping most people within doors. Warmer weather is predicted for towarter. weather is predicted for tomorrow.

Alarms of Fire.

An alarm of fire was sounded yesterday afternoon about two o'clock when a fire was discovered upon the roof of a small trame bouse, on the north side of Franklin street, between Pitt and St. Asaph. The apparatus repaired to the scene, but the flames were extinguished by people living in the neighborhood and the engines were not brought into service.
The second plarm, at 6 o'clock, was caused by a fire on the roof of a house adjoining that which had previously eaught fire. It was also extinguished by neighbors. The houses belong to Mr. Mar.in Lawler, and are occupied by Edward Drowns, August Robinson and W. H. Gilmore were arrested yesterday by Officers Ferguson and Arrington on suspicion of stealing a watch from a man lost his watch. One of the proprietors of the place was fined $20.

Sent to the Grand Jury.

Officer Smith on Saturday arrested a colored individual named Walter Graves on the charge of entering rooms in the Fleischmann House annex, on the west side of Royal street, between King and Prince, and stealing an overcoat, a pair or gloves, a pair of shoes and several razors. It was alleged that Graves had sold the overcoat in Washington. This morning in the Police Court he pleaded guilty to the charge urged against him, and was sent on to the grand jury.

Vicious Dog Killed.

Officers Lyles and Allen this morning killed a vicious dog on Franklin street, between Pitt and St. Asaph. The brute had recently snapped at passersby, and when pursued took refuge under a house, The officers dislodged the dog from its retreat and shot it to death. There are several victous and mischievous curs in Alexandria that should meet a similar
